

Dr. Anne Clark
454 23rd Rd.
Morganville, KS 67468-9117
785-926-4725
bclark@diodecom.net
kansasmusic.net

Areas of expertise: strings, orchestra, allied arts, rural planning in arts, networking for arts, arts curriculum in Christian and public education

Professional Biography

Currently serving for one year as the Project Consultant for "Discovering Strings and Orchestra" with American String Teachers Association, during the first year introducing the project on the national level (see astaweb.com)

2006-07: Served as the Junction City high school orchestra teacher in the first year of implementing a district-wide secondary string orchestra program for Geary County schools

2005 to the present : Part -time teacher and fundraiser for orchestra and general music, grades K-7 in the newly opened Flint Hills Christian School at Green (Kansas)

Listed with the Pernambuco String Quartet on the Kansas Arts Commission "Arts on Tour" program (beginning in 2007), and also formerly listed in a Cello/Piano duo

Director and Founder of Community Chamber Orchestra, a conductorless orchestra small business for North Central Kansas, now in its twelfth year (kansasmusic.net)

Currently teaching a private studio of 26+ string students of all ages and levels

Teaching experience at Kansas State University, Truman State University, Southwest Texas State University, and Southwestern College (TX), as well as in public schools in Clay County, KS, and Hazelwood and Jennings suburbs of St. Louis, MO

Section cellist with the Florida Symphony 1974-75

Cello teacher for U.T. String Project in the 1980's

Author of two self-copyrighted booklets on chamber music materials for students, and articles about string teaching and chamber music

D.M.A. Cello Performance, University of Texas at Austin, 1988

Masters of Music (Education, with Cello Performance Emphasis), Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, ILL, 1979

B.A. in English, University of Missouri/St. Louis, 1971

Kansas Teacher Certification in Music K-12 and English 7-12

Missouri Life Teaching Certificate in Allied Arts and Instrumental Music K-12, and English 7-12
Listed in Who's Who for the last three years